- Friday 5 April 2024 – On oral examination
Are you contemplating oral exams to further develop or complement the exams in your course? You will get examples of how other teachers have done, and what pedagogical pros and challenges they have encountered. Short presentations with room for questions and discussion.
- Friday 19 April 2024 – On feedback to students
How do you provide students with effective feedback in such a way that it leads to a better learning? How do students look upon the feedback they get? During the seminar, we explore different techniques to improve your feedback skills.
- Friday 24 May 2024 – Thoughts on the compilation thesis
Thoughts on the compilation thesis – what's in it besides the papers? Also, some information about a new CEE autumn course on the subject.
